

Pirates of the Caribbean Star Meets With '1066' Producers

Martin Klebba diminutive star of the Pirates of the Caribbean franchise met with Robin Jacob and Lance Prebble the producers of '1066' to discuss his forthcoming appearance as 'Tuold' the confidante and manservant to William Duke of Normandy. He joins his old shipmate Lee Arenberg, pirate 'Pintel' who has taken the role of Robert Champart the first Norman Archbishop of Canterbury in the eagerly awaited historically accurate portrayal of the events that lead to the great battle at Hastings between Oliver! Star Mark Lester's King Harold II and the as yet uncast William the Conqueror.

Klebba has performed in over 60 Movie and TV projects as both actor and established stunt artist, most notably as 'Marty' crew member of Captain Jack Sparrow's (Johnny Depp) 'Black Pearl' in the POTC franchise, he has also appeared in Hancock, Meet the Spartans, Evan Almighty and Men in Black II. In his TV career he has won roles in Bones, Eastwick, Crime Scene Investigation and as Randall Winston in the hit series 'Scrubs'.

'1066' chronicles almost half a century of intrigue. The people, politics and power struggles that lead to the great battle of Hastings on October 14th 1066 at Senlac Hill. The script written by Director Robin Jacob and historical novelist Helen Hollick has attracted some of the world's best movie making talent Including Director of Photography Douglas Milsome (Robin Hood Prince of Thieves, Full Metal Jacket) Peter Hannon, who has taken the role of 2nd Unit Cinematographer (Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban, The Gathering Storm) SFX Supervisor Ian Wingrove (Troy, AVP, Sleepy Hollow) Fight Director Anthony De Longis (Indiana Jones and the Crystal Skull,) and Stunt Supervisor industry legend Rocky Taylor who's impressive CV contains amongst others 17 Bond movies, The Da Vinci Code and Titanic.

With preliminary casting underway for the remaining 90+ speaking parts the question on everyone's lips is:

Who will take on the role of William Duke of Normandy?
